

DAVE STYLES

Born in Seattle to British parents, Dave moved to Liverpool where he lived until he was 10 years old. While there, Dave picked up on the the British passion for American music and came back to the states with the desire to work in radio. Since 2003, Dave has been a mainstay in Los Angeles and become one of the most recognizable names in radio. Dave now hosts one of the most listened to afternoon radio show in Los Angeles, where listeners tune in to hear Dave interview some of the biggest celebrities in entertainment making LA traffic more bearable for his audience.

ALL AROUND L.A. GUY

Everything from loving sports to trying different hair products Dave embraces the LA lifestyle and has an array of interests that make up his LA persona. He's no stranger to the gym, has a passion for soccer and can be seen on the greens at one of the many golf courses in So Cal. His love of sports led him to being the official "in-stadium" host at Dodger stadium where all eyes go to the big screen to see Dave rev up the crowd. He's up to speed on the latest in new technology and uses it to keep in touch with his fans while letting them know his thoughts on a variety of subjects and products in a purely organic way.

DOWN TO EARTH

Whether he's talking about a current issues, new products or events going on, Dave focuses on being local and talks about subjects that are relatable to his listeners. When interviewing A list celebrities Dave breaks away from the Hollywood spin and humanizes them to make them more relatable to his listener. Don't be surprised to hear Dave ask an Academy Award winner what they put in their coffee or what they plan on having for lunch that day. When endorsing any product or service his listeners are well aware that Dave has not only tried that product but has honestly considered what his LA audience would think about it.
